Customer Reviews

Good book. Musical notations are large enough to see easily. Lyrics are presented well. There is really nothing to complain about.

I've played many of the songs in this book on guitar and harmonica. It's the best I've found in book format. I liked it so much, I got it in Kindle also to use on my laptop.

Excellent compilation, but would be so much better if the book was spiral bound. Easy to read and follow, especially for a novice.

An easy guide to some of your favorites and forgotten gems. Get your Bob on and entertain yourself or possibly some others.

I am a child of the 60s, so Bob Dylan (Robert Zimmerman) music is a very large part of my choices to listen. I play his music myself and had no idea where I put my old music books. This helped.

The book itself is great. It's full of great songs and has an easy to read format. Unfortunately trying to read it on a Kindle or a laptop using the Kindle app.
