My Cleveland sports-loving-wife loved this book. She plans to make photo copies of it to pass out at their family reunion so the kids can color in the sadness that is Cleveland Sports. It's pretty funny and well written/drawn. I highly recommend this to any self-deprecating Cleveland Sports fan. I'll be rooting for her Cavs this spring but we all know it'll just end in sadness. Such is the life of a Cleveland Sports fan. Sigh.

Hilarious and went over great as a gift for my dad. Most people have no idea how great these fans are despite the woeful suffering. Cleveland is heaven and the people are incredible. Love to visit there

Love it.Love it all.As a longtime Browns fan, this helped me explain the history to my young daughters.Now they know who to hate and to yell 'boooooo!'When they hear the name 'Art Modell' and why purple is pretty but Ratbirds are dirty.

Definitely worth a try, absolutely hilarious, but not over the top. Was given as a gift to a die hard browns fan who couldn't help enjoying every aspect. Would recommend for any browns fan with even a slight sense of humor

Hey - we're Browns fans - might as well enjoy the misery, right?My favorite thing about this book was taking the picture of Ernest Byner fumbling against Denver, and coloring Byner in a Steelers uniform.In truth, the memories in this book are fun compared to what we watch every Sunday right now...

My Cleveland-fan husband and his whole family (also Cleveland fans) were absolutely delighted with this hilarious novelty. Just the title was worth the price of this gift, but it also actually has a ton of great factual info within. Great fun.

Accomplished exactly what I hoped it would. Put a huge smile on my brother in law's face Christmas morning. Lots of neat sports histort too. Not just a coloring book.

I gave this to my husband for Christmas. He is an avid Browns fan. He loved it. He remembered the events detailed in this coloring book and engaged in the "if only" scenario. He has a wonderful sense of humor and thought it was a great gift. He took it to his office and the guys there liked it too.
