I really like the concept for Color By Numbers â “ Nature. The nature theme is quite lovely and there is so much variety in the type of nature designs â ” there’s animals, birds, rivers and ponds, marine life, blue skies and sunsets, mountains, deserts, trees, leaves, flowers, and more. The reverse sides of the front and back cover feature a total of 61 thumbnail images that show how each color-by-number page will look when you are done coloring. Of the 61 designs, 55 have a portrait orientation while 6 have a landscape orientation. The back cover has a flap that extends out so you can easily consult the numbered color key while you color. This feature is so awesome! Color By Numbers â “ Nature is sized 9 x 11 inches with 128 pages. The designs are single-sided â ” the title and copyright pages (not single-sided) are colorable too. The paper quality is just satisfactory â ” it is a bit reminiscent of copier/printer paper but ever so slightly heavier in weight. Now, letâ™s talk about the numbered color key because we all want to know if our colored pencils are going to match up. The numbered color key in Color by Numbers â “ Nature is different from the color key in Color By Numbers - Calm (Chartwell Coloring Books). My contact at Quarto Publishing Group USA told me that the 24 colors are not based off a specific brand's color palette but rather the colors were chosen for their appealing color palette. So depending on what colored pencils you have on hand, you might not be able to be 100% matchy-matchy and may need to make some color compromises and/or substitutions.
