This is a smaller format coloring book (approximately 7 x 6 inches) with 101 pages each of prayers and coloring designs with journal lines. The prayers are taken from the Bible and are printed in full with cites included. The designs are all licensed from Shutterstock and they all include a portion of the verse as well. It appears that the designs were originally larger and have been made much smaller to fit only a small portion of the page. That makes many of the elements very small and a little difficult to color. I am using this for my morning prayers. I don't go through the book 1 to 101 but instead I let myself be guided to the prayer I need to focus on. The prayers cover a wide range with everything from giving glory and wonder to pleas for help and understanding. The format of the book is that there is a prayer that takes up the entire left hand page. The right hand page contains ruled journal lines which take approximately 2/3 of the page with the remaining 1/3 being the coloring design. I found that I had to use colored pencils with sharp points, gel pens and markers with small tips in order to color in these. For my sample photos, I used Prismacolor Verithins to get into the small details. The designs are printed on one side of white paper. Bible verses are printed on the reverse of the page with frames that you can color if you choose to do so. While the book is printed on both sides of the page, the coloring pages are printed exclusively on the right hand side. If you use coloring medium that bleed through, you won't damage the other coloring pages but will bleed through to the prayer on the backside of your page. The book, while small, is thick.
