Customer Reviews

Higgins eternal ink and standard nibs, totally awful performance. This paper bleeds all over the place not good for practice. It's clear the other reviews aren't real. Honestly like writing on toilet paper. My ink and pens work normally on other papers.

THIS IS A REAL REVIEW!!! I DID NOT RECEIVE A DISCOUNT OR FREE PRODUCT IN EXCHANGE FOR MY REVIEW!!!I do not love this paper to be honest. I wanted it for practicing calligraphy and just....cannot. My complaints: The second the wet ink hits the page it starts to crumple from the moisture so your lettering is affected. The entire page curls up and then the notepad no longer lays flat for storage. The pages also just fall out once they are turned, which I feel with this type of notepad you should be able to choose if you want to rip a page out which for me I did not - they just fell out and then I couldn't keep all of my work together. Will not purchase again.

Just purchased this practice pad for use with Pilot Parallel Pens, their ink and some prisms color duel tip markers. The markers do bleed through slightly, however holds up much better to marker bleed. So far for the price the best performance.

I used to do calligraphy years ago when I was a teenager. Now that I have a teenager, I am trying again along with my daughter (I'm realllly rusty!). I knew it would take a lot of practice to get back where I was years ago, so I figured these lined pages would help. And they do! Especially for my daughter who is learning. There is a basic calligraphy chart inside the cover, which is very helpful for us. The paper is very smooth and thick. It is very similar to the 90lb card stock that I print coloring pages on. I didn't experience any bleeding at all when using the Studio Series Calligraphy Pen Set. It is going to take a lot of practice to get back to where I was, so this pad will be very helpful. I received this product in exchange for an honest and unbiased review, and my opinions are based on my actual user experience.

I don't understand the negative reviews. I adore this paper for practice of pointed pen calligraphy, specially Copperplate. I have used a variety of inks including: McCaffereys, sumi (black and vermillion) Dr Ph Martins Bombay India ink, walnut ink and others without any bleeding problems. This paper is very smooth so there's no problem with the nibs catching not even the Brause 66ef. This paper is very thick, so I'm able to use both sides without any bleed through. In fact, I like this paper so much, that I wish I could buy it for regular use. I didn't buy this on , because I just happened to buy it along with some other practice pads on eBay. I'm here now to buy the pads. Yes!!!! This is a great paper

I hope my granddaughter shows an intrest in learning this skill. I looked it ovet and I could probably learn it as well very fair price and good delivery time.

Bought this for my granddaughter who is teaching herself to do calligraphy and she says it's great.

Loved that it is heavyweight and can practice lettering without the ink bleeding through.
